Embracing the Spirit of Our Ancestors Mentorship Program

Mentor Application

Please complete the form below and email it to office@nimetis.com or drop the form off at the NIMA office at the Robron Centre. A criminal record check (including a vulnerable sector check) is required to become a mentor. A letter requesting the RCMP waive your fees is available. Please make sure you fill in the record check indicating to mail it to NIMA using the address as written above.

The mentorship program will run from September 2019 - February 2020. You will be paired with one mentee (a Grade 9-12 female student). You are expected to exchange emails and phone numbers, as well as volunteer time to spend with this young person. Pairs will be created based on the number of mentees who choose to be a part of the program. Information given below will assist in creating pairs with similar interests if possible.
