

VETERANS COVID-19 SUPPORT FUND APPLICATION

MNBC is supporting Métis Veterans in BC from the financial effects of COVID-19 by providing a $500 support grant to 100 applicants. Applicants must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- MNBC Citizen or self-identifying Métis currently living in BC
- Currently serving or a Veteran of the Canadian Armed Forces or RCMP as verified by Métis Veterans of BC

Priority

Priority will be given in the following order:

1. Métis Citizens registered as Métis Veteran of BC
2. Métis Citizens not yet registered as Métis Veteran of BC with proof of service
3. Self-identified Métis with proof of service

Proof of Service

For a Métis Veteran not currently registered as a Veteran with MNBC Métis Veterans of BC, Proof of Service is required for verification purposes.

- Proof can be a copy of one of the following:
  - NDI 20 Canadian Forces ID Card (or NDI 10 Canadian Forces Temporary ID Card)
  - NDI 75 Record of Service
  - RCMP Record of Service
  - Veterans Affairs Canada Health Identification Card
  - RCMP Employee ID Card
  - Discharge Paper or card
  - MPRR
  - a copy of a Military Certificate bearing the applicant's full name (if the certificate uses a SIN, rather than Service Number, please black out the SIN prior to submitting)
- For a non MNBC Citizen and if self-identifying as Métis, Government issued photo ID required as well as a document as Proof of Service, as listed above

HOW TO USE THE FUNDS

The grant is intended to be used to offset the financial hardships created by the COVID-19 pandemic. Below are a few ideas on how to use the funds:

- Purchase of groceries and costs of groceries delivery service
- Transportation costs to medical appointments
- Personal protection equipment and cleaning supplies
- Support from care aide services
- Meals support services (for example "meals on wheels", etc.)

PAYMENT

When sending your application, please submit a copy of a void cheque for MNBC to complete a direct deposit to your account.
